QUIZ

"BLOODBORNE PATHOGENS IN FIRST RESPONSE ENVIRONMENTS"

Employee Name: __________________________ Training Date: __________________________

1. True or False?... People who have contracted HIV are at risk of developing Acquired Immunodeficiency Syndrome ("AIDS").
   ___ True       ___ False

2. True or False?... There are currently no treatments that are effective in controlling Hepatitis B or relieving its symptoms.
   ___ True       ___ False

3. True or False?... An Exposure Control Plan does not include procedures that should be followed if an accidental exposure to bloodborne pathogens takes place.
   ___ True       ___ False

4. True or False?... "Safe work practices" reduce the potential for exposure to bloodborne pathogens by focusing on the safest ways you can perform various tasks.
   ___ True       ___ False

5. True or False?... If a piece of equipment is contaminated with blood or other body substances, a biohazard label must be affixed to it immediately.
   ___ True       ___ False

6. True or False?... Disposable gloves can be reused safely if they have been cleaned and decontaminated.
   ___ True       ___ False

7. True or False?... Vaccination can help to prevent exposure to some bloodborne pathogens.
   ___ True       ___ False

8. True or False?... While there is currently no vaccine that can prevent Hepatitis B infection, there are vaccines that can prevent infection from AIDS and Hepatitis C.
   ___ True       ___ False

9. True or False?... Any surface that has been contaminated by a potentially infectious material should be thoroughly cleaned with your group's approved disinfecting solution.
   ___ True       ___ False

10. True or False?... "Percutaneous" injuries do not penetrate the skin completely.
    ___ True       ___ False
QUIZ

"BLOODBORNE PATHOGENS
IN FIRST RESPONSE ENVIRONMENTS"

PRESENTER'S COPY...WITH ANSWERS

1. True or False?... People who have contracted HIV are at risk of developing Acquired Immunodeficiency Syndrome ("AIDS").
   X   True   ___   False

2. True or False?... There are currently no treatments that are effective in controlling Hepatitis B or relieving its symptoms.
   ___   True   X   False

3. True or False?... An Exposure Control Plan does not include procedures that should be followed if an accidental exposure to bloodborne pathogens takes place.
   ___   True   X   False

4. True or False?... "Safe work practices" reduce the potential for exposure to bloodborne pathogens by focusing on the safest ways you can perform various tasks.
   X   True   ___   False

5. True or False?... If a piece of equipment is contaminated with blood or other body substances, a biohazard label must be affixed to it immediately.
   X   True   ___   False

6. True or False?... Disposable gloves can be reused safely if they have been cleaned and decontaminated.
   ___   True   X   False

7. True or False?... Vaccination can help to prevent exposure to some bloodborne pathogens.
   ___   True   X   False

8. True or False?... While there is currently no vaccine that can prevent Hepatitis B infection, there are vaccines that can prevent infection from AIDS and Hepatitis C.
   ___   True   X   False

9. True or False?... Any surface that has been contaminated by a potentially infectious material should be thoroughly cleaned with your group's approved disinfecting solution.
   X   True   ___   False

10. True or False?... "Percutaneous" injuries do not penetrate the skin completely.
    ___   True   X   False