QUIZ

"DEALING WITH HAZARDOUS SPILLS"

Employee Name: ___________________________   Training Date: _____________

1. True or False?... An Emergency Action Plan is a generic document that applies to all companies in a particular industry.
   ___ True      ___ False

2. True or False?... Your specific responsibilities during a HAZMAT incident at your facility will depend on where you fit into a worker-classification system devised by OSHA.
   ___ True      ___ False

3. True or False?... A Safety Data Sheet (SDS) describes the primary characteristics and hazards of a particular material.
   ___ True      ___ False

4. True or False?... Two workers may have different job positions at their company, but still be responsible for performing the same tasks during a HAZMAT incident.
   ___ True      ___ False

5. True or False?... The Incident Commander brings the most important knowledge and skills to the HAZMAT spill response team.
   ___ True      ___ False

6. True or False... Flexible plastic barriers not only block a spill from spreading, but also absorb the spilled material.
   ___ True      ___ False

7. True or False?... Contaminated spill socks are considered hazardous waste and must be disposed of according to OSHA guidelines.
   ___ True      ___ False

8. True or False?... One of the major objectives of diking is to prevent spilled hazardous materials from running into storm drains or sewers.
   ___ True      ___ False

9. True or False?... Contaminated sorbents and spill blankets must be placed in OSHA-approved containers for disposal.
   ___ True      ___ False

10. True or False?... Non-sparking tools should always be used to reduce the risk of fire while cleaning up a flammable chemical spill.
    ___ True      ___ False
QUIZ

"DEALING WITH HAZARDOUS SPILLS"

PRESENTER'S COPY...WITH ANSWERS

1. True or False?... An Emergency Action Plan is a generic document that applies to all companies in a particular industry.
   ___ True   ___ False

2. True or False?... Your specific responsibilities during a HAZMAT incident at your facility will depend on where you fit into a worker-classification system devised by OSHA.
   ___ True   ___ False

3. True or False?... A Safety Data Sheet (SDS) describes the primary characteristics and hazards of a particular material.
   ___ True   ___ False

4. True or False?... Two workers may have different job positions at their company, but still be responsible for performing the same tasks during a HAZMAT incident.
   ___ True   ___ False

5. True or False?... The Incident Commander brings the most important knowledge and skills to the HAZMAT spill response team.
   ___ True   ___ False

6. True or False... Flexible plastic barriers not only block a spill from spreading, but also absorb the spilled material.
   ___ True   ___ False

7. True or False?... Contaminated spill socks are considered hazardous waste and must be disposed of according to OSHA guidelines.
   ___ True   ___ False

8. True or False?... One of the major objectives of diking is to prevent spilled hazardous materials from running into storm drains or sewers.
   ___ True   ___ False

9. True or False?... Contaminated sorbents and spill blankets must be placed in OSHA-approved containers for disposal.
   ___ True   ___ False

10. True or False?... Non-sparking tools should always be used to reduce the risk of fire while cleaning up a flammable chemical spill.
    ___ True   ___ False