QUIZ
"FIRE PREVENTION IN THE OFFICE"

Employee Name: ___________________________ Training Date: _______________________

1. True or False?... Once a fire has started, it will continue to burn as long as there is fuel and oxygen to feed it.
   ____ True   ____ False

2. True or False?... A "source of ignition" is any type of material that will burn.
   ____ True   ____ False

3. True or False?... All classes of fires can be extinguished safely by applying large quantities of water to them.
   ____ True   ____ False

4. True or False?... In a fire emergency, any available fire extinguisher can safely be used to fight the fire.
   ____ True   ____ False

5. True or False?... Most fire extinguishers will run out of fire retardant after less than 15 seconds of continuous use.
   ____ True   ____ False

6. True or False?... Hot plates, toaster ovens, coffeemakers and other small appliances can start fires if they come into contact with paper or other clutter.
   ____ True   ____ False

7. True or False?... Extension cords can safely be used as permanent connections for delivering power to equipment, as long as they are taped down.
   ____ True   ____ False

8. True or False?... An "overload" can occur when an extension cord is connected to equipment that draws more current than the cord can handle.
   ____ True   ____ False

9. True or False?... All employees should learn at least two routes they can use to escape from their work area if a fire occurs.
   ____ True   ____ False

10. True or False?... After a fire evacuation, you can leave the assembly area immediately after you report yourself "safe" to the person in charge.
    ____ True   ____ False
QUIZ

"FIRE PREVENTION IN THE OFFICE"

PRESENTER'S COPY...WITH ANSWERS

1. True or False?... Once a fire has started, it will continue to burn as long as there is fuel and oxygen to feed it.

   X True    False

2. True or False?... A "source of ignition" is any type of material that will burn.

   True    X False

3. True or False?... All classes of fires can be extinguished safely by applying large quantities of water to them.

   True    X False

4. True or False?... In a fire emergency, any available fire extinguisher can safely be used to fight the fire.

   True    X False

5. True or False?... Most fire extinguishers will run out of fire retardant after less than 15 seconds of continuous use.

   X True    False

6. True or False?... Hot plates, toaster ovens, coffeemakers and other small appliances can start fires if they come into contact with paper or other clutter.

   X True    False

7. True or False?... Extension cords can safely be used as permanent connections for delivering power to equipment, as long as they are taped down.

   True    X False

8. True or False?... An "overload" can occur when an extension cord is connected to equipment that draws more current than the cord can handle.

   X True    False

9. True or False?... All employees should learn at least two routes they can use to escape from their work area if a fire occurs.

   X True    False

10. True or False?... After a fire evacuation, you can leave the assembly area immediately after you report yourself "safe" to the person in charge.

    True    X False