The following questions are provided to check how well you understand the information presented during this program.

1. Most eye injuries are the direct result of breakage in eye protection equipment.
   a. true
   b. false

2. It is recommended that you have an eye examination at least every ____________.
   a. month
   b. year
   c. two years
   d. three years

3. Prescription glasses must meet rigid standards and have a special mark on the lens if they are to be worn as safety glasses.
   a. true
   b. false

4. What should you do when removing safety glasses after working around dust and debris?
   a. tilt head back and remove the glasses from the front
   b. tilt head sideways and remove the glasses from the back
   c. tilt head forward and remove the glasses from the back
   d. none of the above

5. You shouldn’t attempt to wash a cut to the eye because it could cause further damage.
   a. true
   b. false

6. Your eyes are protected best when you are wearing _________________.
   a. safety goggles
   b. a face shield
   c. safety glasses with a face shield
   d. safety goggles with a face shield

7. If you are exposed to radiant light such as that from welding or lasers, you probably won’t feel any pain right away.
   a. true
   b. false
2107: Industrial Eye Injuries: The Gory Story
ANSWERS TO THE REVIEW QUESTIONS

1. b
2. b
3. a
4. e
5. a
6. d
7. a